

ECMC Annual Network Meeting

Wednesday 14 May 2014

Burdette Suite B, The King's Fund, No. 11 Cavendish Square, London, W1G 0AN

ECMC Research Nurse Network Group

ECMC Nurses: Embracing Challenges, Making Changes

Chair: Linda Jones

Aims:

This workshop will look at how the different ECMCs are set-up and delegates will hear about and discuss examples of inventive work being done by and for research nurses in the ECMCs.

AGENDA

13:30 - 13:40	Welcome and introduction	Linda Jones, Cambridge
13:40 - 14:00	Summary of results from ECMC Survey	Sandie Wellman, Oxford
14:00 - 14:20	Experience and learning from a cross-centre placement	Libby Batt and Kay Wilson, Cardiff
14:20 - 14:50	Examples of innovative roles and practices in ECMCs	Pamela Hindmarsh, Manchester, Linda Jones, Cambridge & Carmel Keyzor, Barts
14:50 - 15:10	Refreshment Break
15:10 - 16:00	Discussion session: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Flexibility and opportunity for role development within ECMCs - the challenges and opportunities• Extended roles (nursing or otherwise) with ECMCs - the benefits and risks• How the RCN research nurse competencies support (or not) early phase research nurses in their professional development and career progression• Where do ECMC nurses come from and where do they go?
16:00 - 16:20	Summary of discussion session	Linda Jones, Cambridge
16:20 - 16:30	Conclusions and next steps	Linda Jones, Cambridge
16:30	Close of Meeting

